

Presenter and Artist Agreement

Date:.....

This is a Contractual agreement between hereinafter named as Presenter and hereinafter named as Artist .

The Presenter agrees to pay the sum offor performance services. The party acting as presenter agrees that they have full authority to make enter into this agreement and take personal responsibility to fulfill the obligations set forth.

It has been agreed between the two parties to this contract that the time and date parameters will be as follows.

Performance

Date

Set Up Time

Engagement Start Time

Engagement Duration

Special Song Request

Any and All additional special requests and considerations are to be added here and will form a part of this agreement. Should these be too numerous for the space provided an addendum will be attached and signed separately as a part of this same agreement.

The Presenter has engaged the Performer on the basis of their pre-determined suitability for the Presenters event, venue and audience. It is with this understanding that the Presenter and Artist/Performer have entered into this contract in good faith for the dates as stipulated. Any unforeseeable circumstance or reasonable slight deviation of the above will not constitute non performance and will not be deemed a breach of this contract by the Presenter.

A non-refundable deposit of 50% of the total performance fee will be due and payable upon the signing of this agreement. The performance date will not be reserved until which time this deposit has been received. Deposit to be paid by cheque and or e transfer or credit card upon the signing of this agreement.

The balance of is to be received prior to performing when the Artist has arrived at the event location and has set up and is ready to perform, this payment may be made in cash or by certified cheque or by e transfer to lloydenglish@shaw.ca.

Confirmation of the dates and all specifics of this agreement will be ratified upon receipt of the deposit and the full force of this agreement will go into effect and be binding on both parties.

I do hereby enter into this agreement in good faith and with the full intention of abiding by the terms and conditions as set forth.

Signed Presenter

Signed Performer/Artist